DANIELSON

Collector George A. Williams will look over with special interest tonight (Wednesday) the list of taxpayers of the town, who have not seen to the paying of their annual tax assessments for the month of May. The limit for discharging the obligation is May 31.

Members of Moriah lodge, A. F. and A. M., are urged to attend a special meeting this (Wednesday) evening. Work in the F. C. degree, followed by a lecture on State Parks by Walter O. Pilly, state forester—adv.

Miss Katherine D. Ayward will be at New London today (Wednesday) attending a conference of chief operators of the S. N. E. "A" company in the Connecticut in the eastern district.

No need to take a trip to Conney Island if you wish to bump the bumps. Just motor from Danielson to Elmville!

Postmaster Raymond Allen announced that the postoffice will be closed this afternoon from 2.30 to 3.30, while the entire postal force of the Danielson office is attending the funeral of former Postmaster George M. Pilling.

At St. James' church Tuesday afternoon a funeral service was conducted by Rev. John Rous, M. S., for Albert Joseph Cusson, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cusson, who live in the Connecticut Mills section of Danielson. Burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. L. E. Kennedy was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Capt. F. O. Armstrong of the State guard company here stated Tuesday afternoon that he is to begin at once recruiting for the 10th regiment, which will be from July 15 to 24. The company will go to Natick for the training. It is not thought that recruiting for the coast artillery organization that is to be formed here will begin before fall, by which time legislation now pending in congress pertaining to the military establishment of the nation may be ironed out and a definite program formulated.

F. E. Cunneen, W. K. Litch and A. Van Woodworth left Tuesday morning to motor to New York on a business trip.

Oscar Lajole, a world war veteran, stirred up some excitement in Attawaugan Tuesday morning when he flung himself into the mill canal with the intention of suiciding by drowning. Observers of his act, who believed that the day may come when life will hold a brighter outlook for him, fished him out of the chilly water and laid him on the grass. A little later Oscar found himself facing Judge Woodward in the town court and was given 30 days in jail on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Family troubles are responsible for landing Lajole in jail, where he may mourn for lack of company in these arid days. On Monday he was in court for the first time since he was arrested for a disturbance at Attawaugan. He has been living apart from his wife for a time and when he went back to the village to get some of his clothing he learned that she was making her home with neighbors. His request for admittance was denied, so he smashed in the door. In court, after this episode, he was released upon the promise not to return to Attawaugan and create any disturbance. Notwithstanding this agreement, he did return and started another commotion Tuesday morning, winding up with his plunge into the canal. He was brought here dripping wet and did not get dried out until after his arrival at the jail.

Extensive alterations of the Pellet building, as to its interior on the lower floor, are under way. C. H. Pellet, owner of the big structure, has ripped out all of the stalls in the section which several years had been in use for stabling purposes and is to devote the entire space to his own business. The alterations are being carried out by a contractor who is working very thoroughly and made very attractive.

One has heard much of real estate transfers in Danielson during the past year, and Tuesday brought another announcement that one of the most important of the business blocks of the borough has come into the market for sale. Whether or not there are prospective purchasers has not been given out.

James Foley, who served in the navy during the world war, and who held a commission as petty officer, is contemplating returning to the service for a period of a year, having been offered an excellent rating if he will re-enlist. Mr. Foley is an expert electrician and such a man as the navy is ambitiously seeking at this time.

A. D. Woodard will be at Providence Thursday to witness the grand parade of the Knights Templar representing 48 commanderies, one of the finest seen in New England by members of this organization in many years.

Danielson people who have been at South Plainfield were interested in inspecting the wreck of a touring car upon which a big motor truck had run over, had toppled after the touring car had run into a prop holding up the stalled and damaged truck.

Though it is very early in the season, it is necessary to warn people living in communities hereabouts that bathing in Quinebaug lake, always a favorite resort, is now strictly forbidden and punishable by law. The lake is now in use as a reservoir to supply water to the village of Watertown.

It was indicated Tuesday that conferences which have been going on between representatives of the town school committee, of the Goodyear Mills company and of the Hunsicker Construction company may result in some arrangement under which the plans for building a schoolhouse at Goodyear may be carried out. All bids for the job of building the school were won by the Hunsicker company, which has been in the process of building the school for some time. The plans for the school were drawn by the Hunsicker company and the labor cost also has risen. There are indications that building materials will come down in price within a month or so, but the Hunsicker company is authorized to state, to add a liberal sum to its share of the cost of the building. While nothing is definitely settled, there seems assurance that the schoolhouse will be built this summer.

For the first time in several years there is an easing up of the labor situation in Danielson and vicinity. More jobs are available at present than has been the case since before the United States entered the world war. This is accounted for in various ways. The reason given is the letting of many operatives go at the plant of the Danielson Cotton company, where the plant is being run out to let the plant be taken over by the Connecticut Mills. At least 200 operatives have been laid off at this plant, and as many more will come out within a month. No so much night work is being done in some of the other plants in this vicinity. There are persons who have been employed in other places where the work has gone slack while the plant here and they are drifting back to Danielson. After the Danielson cotton plant is re-opened for use by the Connecticut Mills, and the Hunsicker Construction company gets its plant finished and ready to operate and the Fern Lea plant at East Killingly starts its machinery, there may be another labor shortage here and likely will be, if prosperity continues through the nation. At least 200 workers, possibly even a larger number, will be required to operate those plants. The present easing of the labor supply in no way indicates a waning of Danielson's prosperity.

PUTNAM

There is to be a musical in Thompson at the home of Mrs. Arnold O. P. Hastings in the interest of the Bryn Mawr movement. An informal program of music has been arranged, for which the town will be served. Miss Rosemond Danielson of Putnam Heights is a member of the committee for this entertainment. The musical will be given on a drive for two million dollars endowment fund for Bryn Mawr college.

At Putnam today there will be a hearing of the case in which Frank Moreau, a railroad worker, will be charged with a serious offense against a young woman of East Douglas who has been employed as a night telegraph operator at the telegraph station at Abington. Moreau was first arrested on the charge made about two weeks ago, denies his guilt of the crime charged against him, and when released upon his own recognizance, after the preliminary hearing returned here from Providence to face the charge.

Horatio A. Brown of South Main street has been appointed on the suite of the eminent grand commander of the Knights Templars of Rhode Island for the big parade scheduled to be held in Providence on Thursday. This parade will include Templars from 48 commanderies scattered throughout the country and will be one of the most important gatherings of Templars held in New England for some time.

Everett Carver has been named as marshal of the Memorial day procession to be held in the city. Plans for the observance are now completed. It was stated on Tuesday that the organizations that will be represented in the procession, so far as has been reported up to this time, are the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, World War Veterans of the American Legion, Woman's Relief corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., High School Cadets, Boy Scouts and Salvation Army.

The committee in charge of the arrangements is trying to make it generally known and understood that all men, women and soldiers, all wars since the Civil war period, whether affiliated with any of the patriotic organizations or not, are invited to join in the Memorial day tribute to the honored dead, to take part in the procession and other exercises of the day. All will be welcomed as will other citizens who have not performed military service.

The plans for Memorial day will be much the same in this city as in other years. In the morning the procession will be formed at the square and will proceed to St. Mary's cemetery, where the graves of soldiers will be decorated and the usual exercises held. In the afternoon the procession will move from the square to Grove street cemetery, where exercises also are to be held.

Potted plants and flags will be used this year, as in the past, to decorate the graves. However, the cost of the decorative materials and plants is greater this year than before and that other expenses have risen so that the usual appropriation from the town will not be sufficient to meet the expenses that are unavoidably heavy.

Mayor A. W. Marcy, Attorney E. C. Mosier, Dr. James B. Ketchum, named by the arrangements committee as a special committee to devise ways and means of raising the money necessary to make up the deficiency that the committee is faced in carrying out the Memorial day program.

Next Sunday morning at 10.15 the members of Anselm Mayotte apostle, central legion, will assemble at the central fire station in the square, to march to the Congressional church, where Rev. Roydon Merrill, a veteran of the World War, will conduct a Memorial Sunday service and preach the sermon.

Commander E. R. Perry of the post said on Tuesday that the men will wear dark clothes and a legion badge. In the Memorial day parade the Legion members may wear either their uniforms or dark civilian suits. Commander Perry has requested the Legion members to assemble Memorial day morning at 9.15 before the start of the parade, and 15 minutes before the start of the procession in the afternoon.

In a hearing in a civil action before Justice Brie H. Johnson, of this city, Howard Ballard, resident on Elm street, awarded damages of one dollar and costs amounting to $11.17, against Charles W. Martin, who also lives on Elm street. The action was brought by Ballard charged that Martin assaulted him; also that Martin trespassed on the Ballard property and delivered a blow on the forehead without permission. The fine and costs were imposed upon the defendant without penalty. The assault was charged by Ballard on May 15, 1919, when he was charged with trespassing on the Ballard property and delivering a blow on the forehead without permission. The fine and costs were imposed upon the defendant without penalty. The assault was charged by Ballard on May 15, 1919, when he was charged with trespassing on the Ballard property and delivering a blow on the forehead without permission.

Members of Quinebaug lodge of Masons of this city and Putnam lodge of Masons of Woodstock have accepted an invitation from Rev. G. C. S. Mackay of this city to attend a service at the Baptist church on St. John's Sunday.

Mayor A. W. Marcy will be among those from this part of the state in Hartford today to attend Hartford day observance as arranged by the Sovereign Grand Conclaves, Scottish Rite Masons.

Silas M. Wheelock left of the State of Maine express Tuesday evening with a party of friends, all from other cities in this state, to attend a service at the Baptist church on St. John's Sunday.

The affair is to be held in Union hall. There is to be a cabaret followed by dancing.

One prominent Putnam man who has been of drives said Tuesday that he is considering introducing a bill which the legislature convenes next January, providing that the event be held on Tag day. This man's opinion is being more and more frequently echoed in various quarters about town and it seems that the date of drives are about over for one long while.

It was stated Tuesday that no definite time has been set for the resumption of the annual fair at the Union Woolen company, which has been closed about one week.

Miss Ellen Wheelock, Mrs. Omar Mill and Mrs. Joseph Gagne make up the committee in charge of the arrangements for the Ladies' golf match, which is the greatest in its history, and will be held at the mill next few months, when all the mills mentioned are operating and the big new spinning mill at Goodyear is running.

Mrs. Ada Loring's friends at the West Side hung her a May basket on her birthday. Music and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Will the person who found a wrist watch belonging to Miss Stella Rapp please communicate with Tel. 35—adv.

The funeral of Everett Dagnall was held from his late home in Attawaugan Tuesday morning with funeral services at St. Joseph's church, Dayville, Rev. Ignatius Kost being celebrant of the mass, which was attended by a large congregation. Burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. Lajole Kennedy was the funeral director.

Is Your Blood Starving For Want of Iron?

Iron is Red-Blood Food—Nourished Iron Helps You Resist the Cheeks of Women and Gives Strength and Energy to Men

If you were to go without eating until you became weak, thin and emaciated, you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power to change food into living blood, muscle and brain. Without plenty of iron in the blood, no matter how much or what you eat, your food simply passes through you without doing you any good—you don't get the strength out of it and instead of being filled with youthful strength and energy you are weak, nervous and all run-down. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks, then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. But don't take the old kind of iron simply to save a few cents. Nuxated Iron is a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like Nuxated Iron if you want it to do you any good. Otherwise it may be more waste than useless. You can procure Nuxated Iron from your druggist on a trial basis. See how you feel after a week or two of its use. If you are not satisfied or your money will be refunded.

to be played at the Country Club Saturday of this week, at which time there will also be a whist at the clubhouse. Arrangements for the whist are being taken care of by Mrs. Frank Thayer.

The day in June has been set for the opening of Chautauqua in this city and it will continue, as usual, for several days.

Putnam and the surrounding territory prospered. A local automobile dealer said Tuesday that the nearly 200 pleasure cars sold by Putnam dealers so far this year, this year referring to the period during which 1920 model cars have been put out, represent an investment of over $250,000 to $400,000. That certainly looks like prosperity and takes some of the edge off the walls about the high cost of living!

Putnam High school players presented the three-act comedy, Phyllis' Inheritance at Union Baptist church Tuesday evening before a large audience. The play was followed by a program of dancing.

SHAMROCK IV LAUNCHING TODAY; FREAKISH LINES ELIMINATED

City Island, N. Y., May 25.—Launching of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, which is to sail for the America's Cup off Sandy Hook in July, is set for tomorrow.

The Irish baronet, in renewing his quest for the historic trophy, a quest begun more than a quarter of a century ago, will have in the water this season a very different Shamrock to that which carried him to victory in 1914.

Virtually all her freak lines have been eliminated. The peculiar scow which made the craft unusual when she came here has been replaced by a more conventional one. The ship was done after inspection by Designer Charles E. Nicholson during the last year of the Resolute and the American.

Designers, and realization that the freak Shamrock would have little chance against either of the American craft.

Last alterations were completed today when a little lead was added to the keel. As the changes have been many, no one would predict just what was to be the result of the rebuild.

After she is launched, it probably will take a week to rig her. Therefore she will not be seen under sail before next week.

The Vanitie lies across the sound, having arrived yesterday off the New York harbor last Thursday evening.

Rear Admiral Nicholas plans to take the craft Thursday under tow to Newport to resume the interrupted series with the Resolute.

A political reformer may be a politician who has managed to get himself disliked by the machine.
